Cwmmeagan & Dolgenau Cottages

Montgomeryshire, Mid Wales

Montgomeryshire is known as the 'the Paradise of Wales', these charming cottages are in the centre of 'paradise'. The area is beautiful, and ranges from fertile farm land in the valleys to mountainous regions with lakes and forests. For visitors with time to drive, walk and admire the countryside is 'perfection'. Nearby is the Hafren Forest, from which the rivers Severn (Hafren), Wye and Rheidol rise. The Plymlimon mountains has many signposted walks and bounds the Clywedog Dam, home to sailing, fishing and nature trails. Further south near Rhayder, with its lakes is the home of the Red Kite. There are nature walks from the Elan Valley Visitors Centre and a farm where visitors are welcome to see the Red Kites feed in winter. Locally there are two golf courses, a driving range, pony trekking and sport centres with facilities for badminton, squash and swimming.
